The Mail that arrived on Friday Night from Holland, brought these farther Advices.

Warsaw, July 10. O. S.

THE following are some very remarkable Circumstances previous to the Conclusion of the Dyet.

The 28th of June, which was the Day before it separated, the Marshal inform'd the Chamber of Deputies, That several of their Body had been with him to give Notice, that a certain Power had caused 50,000 Crowns to be paid at Warsaw, to hinder the happy Conclusion of the Dyet. From hence he took Occasion to shew the Misfortunes which the Republick would be liable to, if there were any Persons in that Assembly so base as to sacrifice the Good of their Country, their Liberty, their Honour and Conscience to a sordid Interest. The Generality of the Deputies earnestly demanded, that those Persons might be nam'd; but some Personal Reasons did not permit him to do it. It was then determined, that the following Articles should be comprehended in the Resolutions of the Dyet; 'That the Court of Rome shall preserve the Right of Nomination to Benefices in Poland, except Abbies, and that the Abbots shall be hereafter elected. That to prevent the free Election of a King from being cramp'd hereafter by Foreign Ministers, they shall be oblig'd to retire from Warsaw while the Dyet is held for that Purpose. That Commissioners shall be appointed to inquire into the Estate of King Stanislaus, and to summon such Creditors before them as have any Demand upon it: That others shall be likewise appointed to go to Russia to reclaim those Persons that have been carried off of the Polish Territories.' Then the Marshal produced a Memorial which had been presented to the King by the Baron de Keyserling the Russian Plenipotentiary, containing several Representations on the Affairs of Courland, to the end that the said Dutchy may be maintained in the Right of the Free Election of their Duke, in case that the Duke Ferdinand of Courland should happen to die without Issue Male. Assurance is also given in this Memorial, on the Part of the Czarina, that if the Republick will consent to this Regulation, Courland shall never be separated from Poland; that the Privileges of the said Dutchy shall suffer no Prejudice, and that on the contrary it shall ever remain a Fief of the Republick. It was then proposed, that the Deputies, in order to clear themselves from all Manner of Suspicion, should swear they had not suffered themselves to be corrupted with Money, for the carrying on of any Affairs to the Prejudice of the Republick.

As the Republick has received Assurances that the Porte will not attack this Kingdom on account of the War with Russia, Orders are sent to the Polish Minister at Constantinople to declare, that the Republick is determined to observe an exact Neutrality. 'Tis uncertain when the King will set out for Saxony, there having fallen such heavy Rains for several Days that the Floods are out, and the Roads in many Places unpassable.

Stockholm, July 12, O. S. The two Gentlemen whom the Academy of Sciences at Paris sent to Swedish Lapland, in order to make some Observations there, for determining the Form of the Earth, while some of their Brethren are making others for the same Purpose under the Equinoctial Line in America, are return'd hither from their Voyage very well satisfy'd with their Discoveries and Observations. Some Virtuosos that accompanied them took that Opportunity to make Botanical Observations, and to inrich the Art of Medicine with several new Plants. The two French Gentlemen, who are Messieurs de Maupertuis and Camus, have had the Honour to be introduc'd to the King, and are return'd to Paris. The others, who are Natives of Sweden, will shortly publish their Discoveries, in hopes that, tho' they are not of so much Lustre as the others, they will be more advantagious to Society.

Madrid, July 6, O. S. All the Instances which have been made by Gonzague, the Pope's Nuncio, to come hither, tho' as a private Man only, have been hitherto in vain, and it has been signify'd to him, that he cannot have such Permission till the intire Conclusion of the Accommodation betwixt this Court and Rome.

Leghorn, July 9, O. S. We hear from Pisa, that the Great Duke of Tuscany has forbid playing at Pharoah, and other Games of Hazard, and that the Duke de Montemar, in compliance with the said Prohibition, has injoin'd the Officers of the Spanish Troops to play at Games of that Sort only when they are among one another.

Rome, July 10, O. S. M. Altoviti is preparing to carry the Red Hat to the Infante Cardinal of Bourbon, which has been thought the more necessary at this Juncture, because his Presence will be of Service at Madrid, for inspiring the Queen of Spain with milder Sentiments. And 'tis with this View that the Pope has given him his Bust in Oriental Alabastre, to carry to the young Cardinal. The Soldiers of the Guard at the Spanish Palace, set out Yesterday for that Kingdom, pursuant to Orders from his Catholick Majesty, but the Officer who commands them continues here. A Courier arriv'd this Morning from Madrid, who, 'tis said, has brought Permission to the Spaniards that are settled here, to stay five Months longer. The Pope has aboliish'd the Order he had sign'd for the Reduction of Pensions, Payments, &c. which has caus'd an inexpressible Joy among all the Inhabitants of this City.

Koningsberg, July 16, O. S. On the 9th the Margrave de Schwed, Son in-Law to the King of Prussia, was seiz'd with so violent a Fever in the Camp at Velau, that they were forc'd to bring him hither. His Prussian Majesty, who arriv'd here himself on the 13th, review'd some Regiments next Day, when the Weather was so excessive hot, that what with the Heat and the Fatigue, three Soldiers dropp'd down dead on the Spot.

Vienna, July 14, O. S. It has been notify'd by Order of the Emperor, to all the Commanders of the Frontier Places in Hungary, that if the Turks ask them the Reason why his Imperial Majesty causes so many Troops to be assembled, and incamp'd in that Kingdom, they must make Answer, 'That no Umbrage ought to be taken at it: That the Emperor does not act thus with a View to a Rupture, but that Peace being concluded with France and her Allies, his Imperial Majesty sent his Troops into Hungary, because they can subsist there more easily than in the Empire.' It has been lately agreed between the Ministers of the Emperor and France, that the Dutchy of Bar shall be deliver'd to the Court of France at the same Time that her Troops withdraw from Philipsburg, Kehl and Triers, but that the Dutchy of Lorrain shall not be yielded to her till the Spaniards have intirely evacuated Tuscany. We have from Constantinople the same News that came hither by Letters from London, touching the Assistance which the Great Mogul is inclin'd to give to the Turks, to enable them to carry on a War with the Russians, notwithstanding that which they are ingaged in with the Persians. Notwithstanding the Mediation which the Emperor has offer'd to the Porte, and the Orders he has sent to the commanding Officers in Hungary, 'tis a Question whether he can avoid taking Part in the War between Russia and the Turks.

Schaffhausen, July 18, O. S. M. Hermann, Secretary of the Emperor's Embassy to the Helvetick Body, has wrote to the Deputies of the Cantons assembled at Frauenfeld, to inform them, that as a Peace was now concluded with France, his Majesty had resolv'd, for the Ease of his Finances, to disband the two Swiss Regiments rais'd during the late War, and which are in Garison in the Forest Towns; but that nevertheless his Imperial Majesty, in acknowledgment of the good Services of those Regiments, had order'd they should not only be paid the Arrears that are due to them, but also that each of the Colonels should have 3000 Florins Pension for Life, the Captains 600 Florins for six Years, the Lieutenants 200 Florins, and the Ensigns 150 Florins for the same Term. But the Deputies assembled at Frauenfeld have judg'd this Reform to be contrary to the Capitulation made for those Regiments with the Marquis de Prie, by which they ought to have been kept on foot six Years, the Deputies of the Cantons have wrote to that Nobleman, to desire him to engage his Imperial Majesty to consent that this Affair may be put off till the meeting of the Dyet of Baden, to the End that a Conference may be then held thereupon with that Minister.

LONDON.

They write from Madrid, that M. Keene, the Minister of England, has not yet obtain'd the Schedula for the Departure of the South Sea Company's Annual Ship, because the Court thinks that New Spain is already too much over-stock'd with European Goods, to be able to take off those brought by the said Ship for some Time.

We hear, that on the 15th of July last, there was a great Fire at Grypswalde, a Hanse Town in Swedish Pomerania, which lasted till next Day, and consum'd 28 Houses to Ashes.

Last Saturday se'nnight Mr. David Pouchoud, the British Commissary at Utrecht, died of an Apoplexy, which was the 7th Fit that he has had within these twelve Months. He was 70 Years of Age.

M. Godefroid Sellins, a Member of our Royal Society, and Author of a well known Treatise of Sea Worms, who was lately appointed Professor of Law in the New Academy founded by his Britannick Majesty at Gottingen, is since call'd by the King of Prussia, to fill the Place of Professor of Law in Ordinary at the University of Hall, in Saxony, with the Title of Counsellor of his Prussian Majesty's Court.

His Majesty has been pleased to present the Rev. Dr. John Thomas to the Rectory of St. Vedast alias Foster, in the City of London, and of the peculiar Jurisdiction of Canterbury, the same being void, by the Promotion of the Right Rev. Father in God Doctor Isaac Maddox, the last Incumbent, to the See of St. Asaph.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint George Clarke, Esq; to be Governor of New York in America, in the room of Col. Cosby, deceased.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of his late Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, her Majesty receiv'd the Compliments of the Nobility and Gentry on that Occasion.

On Wednesday next the Commissioners for building the new Bridge at Westminster, will meet at the Jerusalem Chamber, in order to receive Plans, &c. and to appoint proper Persons for building the same.

Yesterday the Corpse of the Right Hon. the Earl of Scarsdale, was carried out of Town from his late Dwelling house in Duke-street, Westminster, in order to be interr'd amongst his Ancestors at Sutton, in Derbyshire.

On Friday last the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury appointed Money for paying off the Half-Pay to Sea-Officers, from the 1st of January 1735, to the 30th of June 1736, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that behalf; and the several Payments will begin to be paid at the Navy-Office in Broad-street on Thursday the 12th Instant for the Captains, on Friday the 13th for the Lieutenants, and on Saturday the 14th for the Masters and Surgeons.

On Saturday last three Companies of the first Regiment of Foot-Guards, marched off the Parade to the Savoy, and those that were at the Savoy were sent to the Tower, to assist on any emergent Occasion.

Orders are sent to Jamaica for the Return of the six Independent Companies of Foot sent thither, some Time since, to assist in suppressing the rebellious Negroes, they having compleated that desirable Work.

On Friday last Mr. Birch, going from London to his Lodgings at Egham, in Surry, was attack'd on Hounslow-Heath by two Highwaymen, who robbed him of about 14 Guineas and his Pocket-Book, and made off towards the Powder-Mills.

Last Saturday, at the Horse Races at Kentish-Town, six started for the 20 Guineas, which was won by Mr. Fowdger's Grey Horse, Spot.

Yesterday Morning two young Men, both well dress'd, who had been drinking a little too freely, happen'd to quarrel in Fleet-street, and went to fighting, wherein one of them receiv'd such a desperate Blow on one Side of his Temples, that he died on the Spot, but the other found means to make his Escape. The Body of the Deceased was carried to St. Bride's Workhouse, where he was expos'd to publick View, in order to be own'd.

Yesterday

Yeſterday the Rev. Dr. Walker preached before her Majeſty, and the Princeſſes Amelia and Caroline, in the Royal Chapel at Kenſington, after which they received the Holy Communion from the Hands of the Rev. Dr. Butler, Clerk of the Cloſet to her Majeſty.

Laſt Wedneſday Night died of a Conſumption, at Rumford in Eſſex, the Right Hon. the Lord Lovelace, deſcended from Sir Richard Lovelace, Knt. Son of Richard Lovelace, Eſq; who in the 3d Year of Charles I. was, by Letters Patent, advanced to the Degree and Dignity of a Baron of this Realm, by the Stile and Title of Lord Lovelace, of Hurley, in the County of Bucks. His Lordſhip dying without Iſſue the Title is extinct, and his Eſtate devolves on his only Siſter, the Hon. Mrs. Lovelace, one of the Maids of Honour to her Majeſty.

Laſt Saturday died at his Houſe at Weybridge in the County of Surry, Gilbert White, Eſq; poſſeſſed of a plentiful Eſtate in the ſaid County.

The ſame Day the Lady of Sir Henry Liddel, Bart. was ſafely delivered of a Daughter at his Houſe in Brookſtreet, Groſvenor's Square.

Late on Friday Night, and early on Saturday Morning, a great Diſturbance happen'd in Roſemary-lane, near Rag-fair, where upwards of 150 Men aſſembled in a riotous Manner with Clubs, and other unlawful Weapons, and oblig'd all the Houſe-keepers in Roſemary-lane, and the Parts adjacent, to put Lights in their Windows, otherwiſe they would pull their Houſes down, which put the People in the greateſt Conſternation; ſo that the whole Place appear'd with Lights at each Window; and ſome few that had none, got their Windows broke to Pieces. The Mob went from Roſemary-lane to Well-ſtreet by the Watch-houſe, and pull'd down the Houſe of one Welden, a Cook, at the Sign of the Bull and Butcher, and broke the Houſhold Goods all to Pieces. By this Time Clifford William Phillips, of Goodman's-fields, and Richard Farmer, of Well-Cloſe-ſquare, Eſqrs. two of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, had procured a Party of Grenadiers from the Tower, with a Commanding Officer, in order to diſperſe the Mob, but to no Purpoſe, for they went from Well-ſtreet into Rag-Fair, and demoliſh'd the Queen's Head, and a Cook's Shop (the Maſter of which is an Iriſh Man) in Mill-yard, and a Tavern hard by, kept by Iriſh People: From Rag-Fair they went to Church-lane, and demoliſh'd the White-Hart Ale-houſe, and from thence to White-Lion-ſtreet, and demoliſh'd the Gentleman and Porter, they being all Houſes where Iriſhmen uſed. The general Cry was, while they were committing theſe Outrages, down with the wild Iriſh. Juſtice Phillips, and the commanding Officers from the Tower, had their Swords drawn, and deſired the Mob quietly to depart; but they could not diſperſe them till towards four o'Clock on Saturday Morning, when John Brundit, Edward Dudley, William Ormond, Robert Maccay, Thomas Batteroy, and Robert Page, were apprehended, and on Saturday Night were committed to Newgate.

A Party of his Majeſty's Horſe-Guards, a Party of the Horſe Grenadiers, and two Parties of Foot, patrole every Night in the Streets of Spital-fields, Whitechappel, Rag-Fair, &c.

Laſt Saturday about 16 other Perſons were apprehended, on Suſpicion of being concern'd in the ſaid Riots.
